CALL TO ORDER

INFORMATION/DISCUSSION

Information/Discussion Item #1
Potential decisions for Town events

Davy Broom, Town Manager gave an update of the Town's response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Mr. Broom stated that the Town was working closely with York County Emergency Management to promote safety and limiting risk of exposure.

He stated the Town will continue to provide all essential services with limited risk of exposure.

A second drive thru service has been made available so that more citizens can make payments through the drive thru service without requiring to enter the building.

Meetings were being held by teleconference and if physical presence at meeting were required, then meetings will be held in open well-ventilated areas preferably outdoors.

Mayor Savage stated that all Parks and Recreation programs will be suspended until April 12th. A decision regarding the SC Strawberry Festival event scheduled for April 25th will be decided by the end of the month.

Mayor Savage said that the Downtown Strawberry Jam, scheduled for this weekend, will be cancelled.

Mayor Savage made a MOTION to direct Davy Broom, Town Manager to delay or cancel any event that Council sponsors or assists with or is held on Town property until the end of the month. SECONDED by Councilwoman Cook. Passed 6-0.

ADJOURNMENT

Councilwoman Cook made a MOTION to adjourn. SECONDED by Councilman Shirey. Passed 6-0.
